Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)*(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

NO LABELS,

Plaintiff,

Civil Action No. 23-1384-GBW

v.

NOLABELS.COM, INC.,

Defendant.

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

AND NOW this 15th day of December 2023, at 3:25 p.m., the Court having considered the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction against Defendant NoLabels.com, Inc. (“Defendant”) filed by Plaintiff No Labels (“Plaintiff”) (D.I. 3), and having held a hearing on the Temporary Restraining Order on December 15, 2023, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (D.I. 3) is GRANTED.<sup>1</sup> Based on Plaintiff’s Motion and supporting documents, as well as evidence and arguments presented at the hearing, the Court finds that Plaintiff demonstrated: (1) that a temporary restraining order should be issued given that Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm in

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff and Defendant both agreed that they discussed limiting the hearing on December 15, 2023 to only the Court’s consideration of Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order. Defendant asserted that the parties agreed to not include the request for a Preliminary Injunction as part of the requested relief during this hearing. Plaintiff did not deny Defendant’s understanding, but alleged that there was some ambiguity in the parties’ respective understanding of the outcome of the discussion. For that reason, the Court will rule only on the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order today and will schedule a future hearing on the Motion for Preliminary Injunction after completion of expedited discovery.

absence of immediate relief; (2) the likelihood of success on the merits of the trademark infringement claim in its Complaint; (3) that it will suffer irreparable harm in the form of loss of control of reputation and goodwill if immediate injunctive relief is not granted; (4) that Defendant's conduct is likely to cause confusion and harm to the public, which confusion and harm will continue in absence of immediate relief; (5) that Defendant will not suffer harm if injunctive relief is granted; and (6) that entry of a temporary restraining order is in the public's interest.

2. Accordingly, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65 and Section 34 of the Lanham Act, Defendant, along with its officers, directors, principals, agents, representatives, servants, employees, affiliates, successors, or assigns, or any person or entity acting on its behalf or in concert or participation with it, is hereby temporarily restrained and enjoined from further using and/or infringing the NO LABELS mark pending further hearing and determination of this action and/or until further Order of the Court, and specifically ordered to: (1) take down and not restore the Infringing Website; and (2) cease all other activities that infringe the NO LABELS mark.
3. On or before December 18, 2023, Plaintiff shall post bond in the amount of $250,000 and shall provide the Court and Defendant with evidence that the bond has been posted. In the event that Plaintiff fails to post the bond as required herein, this temporary restraining order may be withdrawn by Order of the Court.
4. This Order and injunctive relief granted herein shall remain in place for fourteen (14) days and may be extended for an additional period for good cause.
5. The parties shall meet and confer on or before 5:00 p.m. ET on Monday, December 18, 2023. The parties shall file a joint status report, not to exceed three (3) pages, on or before

5:00 p.m. ET on Tuesday, December 19, 2023. The joint status report shall update the Court on any agreements the parties have reached on the scope of expedited discovery, the schedule of expedited discovery, and proposed dates for a preliminary injunction hearing. To the extent the parties are unable to reach complete agreement on the scope of expedited discovery, the schedule of expedited discovery, and/or proposed dates for a preliminary injunction hearing, the parties shall specify the portions to which they agree and submit their respective proposals on the portions to which they are not in agreement.
